

TROMSØ AIRPORT, NORWAY

Tromsø airport is the busiest airport in Northern Norway with 35 000 moments per year. Tromsø TWR was renovated during 2005/2006.

The ACAMS Integrated Tower Solution (I-TWR) was installed and commissioned in 2006.

|                                       |  |
|---------------------------------------|--|
| Commissioned:                         | 2006   |
| Operator positions:                   | 3 TWR, 1 Tech Monitor  |
| Operator screens:                     | 19" industrial touch panel mount                               |
| Airfield lighting control             | APP, RWY PAPI, 4 taxiways, apron, stop bars.                   |
| Met display:                          | 3x Wind speed directions sensors, 1x PTU                       |
| Navaid monitoring:                    | 6x ILS, 2x NDB, 3x DME, 1x VOR, MSSR                           |
| Time synchronisation:                 | GPS synchronised, shared with recorder                         |
| Tower cabin lighting control:         | 10 independently controlled spotlights                         |
| Sun shade control:                    | 7 shades with individual control                               |
| ATIS:                                 | Individual System  |
| Video surveillance/ entrance control: | Surveillance camera and remote control for tower entrance door |
| External alarms:                      | Recorder alarms/UPS /ATIS/ etc.                                |
| Other                                 | ACAMS Notice Board Function                                    |